

Slang (n.)

a type of language that consists of words and phrases that are regarded as very informal, are more common in speech than writing, and are typically restricted to a particular context or group of people.

Teenage/CAL

- It's lit -It's extremely exciting and fun
- My bad- Sorry, that was my fault
- Bruh- friend
- Busted- ugly
- Rad- radical
- Swag-awesome, cool
- I ship them- they would make a great couple
- Idk- I don't know
- Tbh- to be honest
- Bae- girlfriend or boyfriend
- Salty- grumpy, upset, moody
- That's sketch- that's suspicious
- Yolo- you only live once
- It's gucci - it's okay
- Baller - cool
- Fam- friend
- Sup- what's going on
- Wassup- what's going on
- K- okay
- Cuz- because
- Wanna- want to
- Gonna- going to
- Goin- going
- Sick- awesome
- Dope - cool
- Nards- oh no!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
- Cattywampus- messed up, not right
- Wonky- weird
- Her people - relatives, friends
- Chill- cool
- Low key- somewhat
- Keep it on the DL- don't talk about it in public

Southern

- Ain't- is not
- Y'all - you all
- All y'all- everybody

- Fixin- I'm about to
- Hankering- a want
- Howdy- hello
- Hunkey dorey- casual
- Purty - pretty
- Lick- beating
- Sho nuff- sure enough
- Tater- potato
- Uppity- arrogant
- Young uns- children
- Lickety split- quickly
- Fit as a fiddle- in shape
- Skedaddle- scatter

Two Sentences

- Bruh, y'all look purty tonight. - Friends, you all look gorgeous tonight.
- Imma hit you upside the head, boy. - I'm going to hit you on the head, son

JingleSlang is informal yo

We use it to call people bro

We got a fixin to use it in speech not writing

You might think lit is about lighting

We say salty and Gucci too

It's all k, cuz it's up to you

It's fine in talking, sho nuff

But in writing, the teach might be pretty tough!